

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

VOL. 11.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1861.

NO. 27.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by
A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

The WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.

A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unequalled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or Disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate bedside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The WEEKLY will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.

Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

JAMES R. WATSON, Proprietor.

HAVING taken this well known house for a term of years, and thoroughly refitted it in every department, I am now prepared to receive and accommodate, in superior style, all who may favor me with a call. The undivided and ceaseless attention of myself and assistants will be exclusively directed to the comfort and pleasure of those who may honor the house with their patronage. If neat and clean beds, genteel rooms, a sumptuous table, and polite and attentive servants, will receive patronage, I am determined to deserve it. The Bar will be supplied at all times with the choicest liquors, cigars, and tobacco.

SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,

TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the gallery of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype, (made only at this gallery,) is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photographic pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

CIRCULAR.

JOHN A. FLYNN,

PROFESSOR OF

Drawing, Writing, and Book-keeping.

HE would respectfully inform the citizens of South Frankfort, that a class for Young Ladies will be opened on Monday, June 10th, 1861, at the residence of Rev. Mr. McNairy, commencing at 8 o'clock, A. M., and closing at 9 o'clock.

A beautiful style, either in the Writing or Drawing Department, will be taught on the following terms:

For Writing, including materials, $1 50 pr. mth.

For Drawing, including materials, $2 25 pr. mth.

Lessons in either department at the option of the pupil.

The Professor submits the following testimony:

Frankfort, Ky., May 22, 1861.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that our children have taken lessons in writing, under the care of Mr. John A. Flynn, and we are happy to say their improvement has been highly satisfactory. We consider Mr. Flynn a kind and efficient teacher, and we therefore most warmly recommend him to all the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity who may require his services.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned, having been compelled by the late fire to change his location, has removed his BOOT AND SHOE ESTABLISHMENT to the room lately occupied by Beyer and Callenbrun, on Main Street, opposite to the Mansion House, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and customers and many new ones. He hopes by strict attention to business, and by charging reasonable prices, such as suit the times, to merit and receive a fair proportion of public patronage.

Fever and Ague,

from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a diseased action in the system, induced by the poisonous miasmatic vegetable decay. This miasmatic action is evoked by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the watery vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and excreting organs of the body. The liver becomes torpid and fails to secrete not only this virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finally, the instinct of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the poison of the blood, concentrates the excreting force of the body in the internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the CHILL. But in this effort fails. Then the fever follows, as which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through that other great excretory—the skin. In this also it fails, and the system abandons the attempt to repel the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits or paroxysms of FEVER and AGUE. Such constitutional disorder will of course undermine the health if it is not removed.

We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

which neutralizes this miasmatic poison in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. As it should, so it does cure this miasmatic disorder with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather, what is of more service to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently, not only cures, but prevents, from the great variety of ailments which are induced by this miasmatic influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fevers, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Blindness, Toothache, Erysipelas, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysterics, Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This Ayer's Cure removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease.

This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these excretories by degrees become habituated to do this of their own accord. Hence arises what we term acclimation. Time may accomplish the same end, but often life is not long enough, or is sacrificed in the attempt, while this Ayer's Cure does it, and with safety. We have great reason to believe this is a sure as well as safer remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the miasmatic infection, than any other which has been discovered; and it has still another advantage, adapted to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.

TELEGRAPHIC.

[From the Evening Bulletin, of Sept. 12.]
A special dispatch to the Louisville Journal, says:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.

Cannon roaring in the distance—battle going on.

Gen. Floyd reported routed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12, 1861.

The Government received a dispatch to-night from Gen. Rosecrans, that he had routed Gen. Floyd's command, and that the latter was driven to his earth works. Gen. Rosecrans will give battle to Floyd to-morrow.

Secession Insolence.

The Memphis Appeal has a long article on Kentucky, which for impudence and insolence takes the lead of anything which has come under our observation since the Devil proposed to present our Saviour with certain territories and privileges. We cannot afford space for the entire article, but give a single paragraph which will show the complexion of the whole. Here it is:

"THE TRUTH HAD AS WELL BE SPOKEN, AND WE CAN TELL HER (KENTUCKY'S) CITIZENS—LOYALISTS AND TRAITORS—THAT NO SUCH IDEA HAS EVER FOR ONE MOMENT ENTERED THE MIND OF THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE AS THAT SHE SHALL REMAIN UNDER THE IRON RULE OF THE YANKEE DESPOTISM. THE SOUTH NEEDS HER TERRITORY, AND MUST HAVE IT, THOUGH AT THE PRICE OF BLOOD AND CONQUEST."

There it is in a nut shell. We commend it to the neutrality men of this Legislature. We commend it to Governor Magoffin, and his large variety of Commissioners, who have been trotting between here and Tennessee for the purpose of preserving Kentucky's neutrality.

They intended at first to have Kentucky, but they're getting impatient of delay, and hence "the truth had as well be spoken, &c." Now isn't that rich. Lying has failed, and as a last resort they fall back on the truth. "The South needs her territory," quoth? No doubt of it. The poor devils have been looking to Kentucky for bacon, corn, horses, men, money, &c., &c., until their hearts are made sick by hope deferred. They can't wait any longer, but "must have it, though at the price of blood and conquest."

We don't know how much blood they have, but are quite certain that there is not "conquest" enough in the Southern Confed. to buy or frighten Kentucky out of the Union. No; not enough to jar her even. In the words of "Mose": "If yer coming, why don't yer come along?"

Peace Meeting in Russell County—The Meeting in the Mountains.

From a most reliable gentleman we learn that, in obedience to a call issued by the Secession leaders of Russell county for a peace meeting, about three hundred citizens assembled at the court-house, in Jamestown, and as soon as the real character of the movement was evident from the attempt to promote the rankest secession, under the garb of peace, the crowd, except twenty, (all told,) left the court-house, and, organizing a meeting outside, adopted resolutions breathing the finest Union feeling, denouncing secession, Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy. Our correspondent says: "After an eloquent Union speech from Judge W. M. Green, three cheers for the Union were proposed, and such a shout as then arose was never heard sent forth in Russell. Three cheers were given with a hearty will for Judge Green. The Union cause is losing nothing here. The people of the mountains are too sharp and too loyal to be deceived by the miserable attempt to aid the Southern Confederacy by the so-called and mis-called peace meetings. The resolutions of the 20 rabid secessionists will, I doubt not, be heralded in the Courier as an expression of the sentiments of Russell. We protest against the infamous attempt to scandalize the patriots of this county by so base a trick."

All our advices from the mountains show that the whole country is aroused; and from hill and valley the brave and loyal mountaineers are rallying to drive the invader from our soil.

It is hoped that the Legislature will inquire into the expediency of including pipes in the list of deadly weapons. The entire secess party came near losing its precious life from the very sight of one. Suppose the "peace" party had tumbled over the railings at the capitol, and broken itself into several little pieces? We draw a veil, &c.

It will be seen from the letter of our Washington correspondent that the female traitors who have been confined in Washington for some time, are doing as well as could be expected.

Hornpipes and bagpipes are very good things to make young people dance, but if you want to see the peace party get up and dust itself just show them Ed Marshall's smoking pipe.

Public Meeting of the Citizens of Shelby County.

On Monday, September 9th, 1861, it being the regular County Court day, the citizens were addressed by the Hon. Robert Mallory. At the close of his speech, the Court House being crowded, the meeting was organized by calling Winn Gunn to the chair, and John T. Ballard to act as Secretary; whereupon, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, since the commencement of the present war Kentucky has maintained that position of neutrality indicated by the resolutions adopted by her Legislature, and harmonizing with the views of a very large majority of her citizens; and whereas, without provocation a Southern Confederate army has invaded her soil, and has only been prevented from occupying a large portion of her territory by the vigorous action of Gen. Grant, of the Federal army; and whereas, we believe it is the design of the Confederate authorities to advance their forces until they shall have overrun the State, and subjugated her citizens—therefore,

Resolved, That it is sense of this meeting that the Legislature, now in session in the city of Frankfort, ought, without delay, to adopt the most vigorous measures for expelling the invaders from her soil.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the course of our representative in Congress, the Hon. Robert Mallory, at the recent called session.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Shelby News, Louisville Journal, Louisville Democrat, and Frankfort Commonwealth, and that a copy be sent to our representatives at Frankfort.

Old Postage Stamps to be Continued in Use.

The following important document is to be forwarded to every postmaster in the loyal States

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,

FINANCE OFFICE, Sept. 11, 1861.

SIR: It is found to be impossible to supply at present the demand for postage stamps of the new style. Every effort will be made to increase the amount manufactured daily; but, under the most favorable conditions, the distribution of these stamps to all post offices in the loyal States cannot be effected within the period contemplated by the department. Under these circumstances, notice is hereby given to all postmasters who have not received new stamps, to continue the sale of the old issue, and, of course, to mail all letters brought to their offices prepaid by stamps of the old style. With each supply of new stamps, postmasters will be directed how to dispose of the old. A strict compliance with the foregoing instructions is required by the Postmaster-General.

I am, respectfully, your obedient servant,
A. N. ZEVELY,
Third Assistant Postmaster-General.

The Taunton (Mass.) Locomotive Manufacturing Company, says the New Bedford Mercury, is engaged in the fitting breech-loading carbine for cavalry use. An order to rifle one thousand has been nearly completed, and the same concern will, if the work already undertaken proves to have been well done, have further orders. The company are also finishing up one or two large shafts for the sloop-of-war now building. One weighing four and a half tons—twenty-four feet eight and a half inches long, and twenty-one inches in diameter—to be covered with a shell of brass half an inch thick, is designed for the sloop-of-war now building at Portsmouth.

A Presbyterian clergyman, while walking the deck of a steamer at St. John, N. B., where secessionism has considerable footing, noticing the American flag flying from the masthead of a ship, tauntingly said to Col. Favor, "Why don't you take a slice off that flag, since you have lost a portion of your country?" Yankee like, the Col. quickly replied: "Why don't you tear a leaf from your Bible because a part of your church have fallen from grace?" The clergyman had no more to say on that subject.

Wonder if pipes are contraband of war? Peace party please answer.

[From Col. Forney's Correspondence with his paper.]

WASHINGTON Sept. 6th, 1861.

I am neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but I think we are on the road to an honorable and lasting peace. It will be a conquered peace—a peace won at the cannon's mouth, sealed with the blood of traitors, and established on the basis of the old Constitution, to last, let us hope, through enduring generations. There is one subject upon which loyal men may freely write, and that is the approaching overthrow of the Southern despotism, and by consequence, the proclamation of enduring peace. It is true we must reach the end through war and carnage and death. But we will reach it. When Gen. McClellan encounters Gen. Beauregard he will annihilate him, and will compel a surrender that will be followed, I predict, by a perpetual peace. This is held language, but I am willing to stake my reputation upon it.

General McClellan's father, though of medium stature and spare habit, possessed a frame capable of great activity and endurance. When he moved, every muscle seemed in action. With this physique his mind was in singular harmony. Energy, intense energy, was its prevailing characteristic. To this was united a wonderful tenacity of purpose. At once comprehensive and minute, his mind quickly grasped the whole of a subject, yet never lost sight of any of its details. He was as rapid in thought as he was prompt in action. When others stopped to reflect, he had decided. Unexpected occurrences never threw him off his balance, for his professional knowledge made him equal to any emergency. Thus to a looker-on he seemed to be never taken by surprise.

These are qualities which insure greatness in any profession. So far, the son seems to have inherited them all. Perhaps the best evidence of his merit is the universal testimony of officers of the army, over whose heads he has been so summarily promoted. So far as the writer knows, there is but one opinion among them. God speed him, then, and if he shall realize the great things we all expect of him, the nation will have new cause to thank General Scott who, it is said, selected McClellan for his successor as Commander-in-Chief.

Letter from Washington.

The Occupation of Paducah—General Grant—Warlike Rumors at Washington—Somebody dead in the Southern Confed.—Prayer Meetings—Office Seekers, &c.—Female Trinitarians—Confederate Prisoners.

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 7, 1861.

There now! What will the Senator from the McCracken district think? What will he say or write about the armed occupation of the city of Paducah? Nothing that has been done in the west has given such general satisfaction as the movement of General Grant. The contraband trade which has been carried on from Paducah was worth an army of 100,000 men to the Confederate Government. It has been the boast of the Secessionists of Baltimore, and the South generally, that as long as Kentucky remained neutral the port of Paducah would furnish all the supplies needed for the Confederate army in West Tennessee. The Union men who have so long been borne down by the oppression and intolerance of those who believed themselves the custodians of the honor of the South, will be relieved: their hearts will be made glad by the sight of the stars and stripes waving above them. For the spine of the matter the good-natured Senator is expected to protest. He will protest with a vim, and that will be about all the good it will do. In behalf of the worthy and kind-hearted Senator, I will say many good words to my whilom friend, Gen. Grant. If the people of Paducah will only cultivate the acquaintance of the General, I promise them that they will change the error of their ways, and agree with me that a better man was never in their midst.

We haven't had a battle in our neighborhood recently, although timid citizens are frequently startled from their propriety by heavy cannonading heard in the distance, as they think the sulphurous aroma which surrounds their person is evidence that the cannonading is nearer home, and proceeds from the same kind of gun as was used by Gen. Price at the battle of Boonville.

The city papers will have it that Jeff. Davis is dead. The report of his death is barely credited as a possibility by those who are supposed to be in a position to know the fact. That some one of distinction has recently died in the Southern Confederacy there can be no doubt. On Tuesday last the flags of the rebels in this vicinity were flying at half mast all day.

After some days of drenching weather we are enlivened by the bright rays of the sun. Our grand avenue is crowded again with the beauty and fashion of the city. Very few soldiers are met with inside the city limits. Military discipline is rigidly enforced, and good order prevails. None of the loyal citizens have left—no danger being apprehended by remaining. The hotel registers show a liberal amount of pleasure travel. The concert halls are in full blast—the Campbell Minstrels having been playing to crowded houses for two weeks.

The business men's prayer meetings are being worried along. The difficulty seems to be that the men are too busy to attend, and their places are poorly supplied by newspaper reporters and faro bank dealers.

The office seekers have lost sight of God, and direct their prayers to the President and his Secretaries. Upon what slender reeds do they hang their hopes of rescue from poverty and its attending evils. Every man who applies for an office proves to be one who was unwilling to stain his hand as an honorable citizen, engaged in a legitimate business, but must needs draw a political card which bursts him.

The female traitors now imprisoned in the city are quiet—a great variety for them. The Confederate prisoners are kindly treated, and are gentlemen enough to appreciate such a blessing.

McPHEARSON.

[For the Frankfort Commonwealth.]

Union men of Kentucky, buckle on your armor! The rebels from Tennessee have invaded your State. The vile Secession leaders have at last accomplished part of their well understood programme, having brought to your doors this cruel, unnatural and unjust war—that war inaugurated by Jeff. Davis, Yancey & Co. The time for argument is past. Rally as one man around your country's banner, and drive back this accursed oppressive horde that would fill your land with sorrow and mourning. Strike down every traitorous hand that dares invade your homes—Enlist in companies, regiments and brigades, and crush out every vestige of this wicked, hypocritical, secession, white-rag party, who, by their inflammatory harangues, have led their deluded followers step by step from violence to violence into this inhuman and unfeeling system of blood and massacre, or will you longer entreat and supplicate these demons to be still. No, never! You have the power within your own hand to avert this dire calamity that they would bring upon you. By prompt, decisive action, hold them accountable and make them feel and know that the day of reckoning has come. Set your seal upon these deceptive peace meetings, and close the mouths of these inflammatory traitorous speakers. It's your country that so loudly calls upon every true man to rally and emulate the examples of your forefathers. Take a solemn pledge within your own hearts to sacrifice, if needs be, your lives and property; to forever stand by the stars and stripes, and let no interest move you from your devotion and allegiance to your Government, that has ever thrown a protective shield around you. Do not yield up that priceless inheritance that cost so much precious blood. No, never! But shun these traitors as you would the deadly upon, and be inspired to rally around and to your country's defense by the many noble and patriotic examples of your forefathers at Lexington, Bunker's Hill, Princeton, Trenton, Concord, the Thames and Buena Vista, whose life-blood were so freely poured out for their country. Yes, sound the bugle! Ye sons of the Logans, Dudleys, Allens, Davises, Boyles and Sneads, fly to arms from Knox, Whitley, Pulaski and Wayne, to Campbell and Kenton, from Greenup to Fulton, from Monroe to Jefferson, and never desert or cast a word of censure upon the brave mountaineers who have had the moral courage to lay down all party ties upon the altar of the country, and by their votes to save Kentucky, and who are now ready to rally to her defense and the defense of this Union. It is for you now to sustain and encourage them in the bold and decisive stand. So come out from the work-shops and labor-fields and stand shoulder to shoulder with them until their stars and stripes float triumphantly from every hill top and court house throughout the land.

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just, And this be our motto: "In God is our trust." And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave.

VIGILANCE.

OBITUARY.

Died, on Tuesday, Sept. 9th, 1861, in the 28th year of her age, Mrs. ANN MARY CRAIG, eldest daughter of the late Samuel and Jane Wilson, and consort of Mr. Charles S. Craig, of Woodford county.

For two months previous, she had been in declining health, and, although the best remedial agents were employed, the progress of her disease remained unchecked. She had just returned from the Oak Orchard springs, whither she had gone with the fond hope of herself and friends that the medicinal virtues of its waters would afford some relief, but after remaining there about ten days, without any perceptible improvement, she returned to her home, and in three days her gentle spirit left its tenement. Nor was she unprepared for the visit of the pale messenger. Surrounded by those she loved, she gave the best evidence of an abiding faith in her Saviour, by admonishing them to be more devoted to the service of God, that they might enjoy his sustaining grace in every time of need. To her portals of the tomb were lighted up by the glorious Son of Righteousness, and, as she walked through the valley and shadow of death, she feared no evil, for her blessed Saviour was with her, and his rod and his staff were her comfort and support. The contemplation of death is at all times painful to the heart, even though the subject of it should have no special claim upon our sympathies. But, oh! when it comes and takes away a loved one; when it breaks up the tender ties of nature; when it severs the fond associations of years; when it shuts out the blessed light of the sun forever from a wife, a mother, a sister, a relative, then it is it sends a crushing weight upon the soul, and fills it with anguish beyond the power of human language to portray. How sadly has the truth of these reflections been realized by the relatives and friends of the lamented subject of this obituary. In the prime of womanhood—with the tender bonds of conjugal affection opening around her—with a disposition to meet, and a will to carry out, everything which she believed to be conducive to the best interests of her beloved companion; with a heart glowing with maternal solicitude for her children, (of whom she leaves two, not old enough to appreciate the loss of the tender caros of a mother); fraternal love for her brother and sisters, and a warm and generous regard for her relatives and friends—with all these to bind her to life, and tender her to those around her, who has been taken away and gone forever. Mrs. Craig was a worthy and consistent member of the Presbyterian church, some ten or twelve years standing, of Green's Creek.

TO CONSUMPTIVES AND THOSE AFFLICTED WITH

DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, HEART DISEASE,

FEVER AND AGUE, OR CONSTIPATION.—The undersigned, now seventy-five years old, has for years devoted his time to curing his Parishioners and the poor in New York of these dreadful complaints, which carry thousands and thousands to an untimely grave; he has seldom failed to cure all who have applied to him for relief, and believing it to be a Christian's duty to relieve those abroad, as well as at home, he will send to those who require it, a Copy of Prescriptions used, (free of charge), with directions for preparing and using the same. Also rules on Diet, Bathing, Ventilation, and Exercise for the Sick; they will find these remedies, a sure cure for Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Fever and Ague, Constipation, Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and Female Complaints, and he hopes every one afflicted will send for a copy, as it will cost nothing, and those suffering should apply before it is too late. These Prescriptions are used by the most eminent Physicians in London, Paris, and New York. Those wishing them will please address REV. DR. CHAMBERLAIN, dec12 ly. Williamsburg, New York.

TERMS CASH.

I have been compelled to adopt the cash system, which will enable me to sell good at from ten to twenty per cent, lower than formerly. These terms will be enforced from this date.

Sign of the Eagle.

June 4, 1861. A. CONERY.

To the Young Men of Kentucky!

BY the authority, and for the service of the Government of the United States, I propose to organize in Kentucky a REGIMENT OF CAVALRY, to serve three years, or during the war—to consist of Ten Companies—each company to contain not less than eighty-four nor more than one hundred and four rank and file. Horses and all equipments to be furnished.

Volunteers owning good horses can have them appraised, mustered into the service, and paid for by the mustering officer. The Captains and Lieutenants are to be elected by the companies respectively. Captains of companies will report to me at the Galt House in Louisville, as soon as practicable. No company must be moved from its point of organization until ordered into Camp. Transportation to the point of Rendezvous will be furnished. None but active, vigorous men, and men of steady habits will be received.

Captain Richard W. Johnson, of the regular army, has been detailed to act as Lieutenant Colonel. I intend to make this regiment in all respects equal to the best drilled corps in the regular army.

I know this call will be patriotically answered. The soil of Kentucky has been wantonly invaded.

J. S. JACKSON.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 6, 1861.—2t.

B. B. SAYRE'S SCHOOL

Will be in session in South Frankfort, if not prevented by the unhappy state of the country, forty weeks beginning with the 30th September.

It is expected that this school will be reduced to half its former size. In such case less time will be required for recitation in the school room. The hours of confinement there will be fewer, while more study will be done by the students at their rooms.

The few boarders expected can be well accommodated in the neighboring families.

Charge for tuition, per school year, $75, to be paid in advance; otherwise, in every case, to be secured by note with one good name.

Cephalic Pills

CURE Sick Headache

CURE Nervous Headache

CURE All kinds of Headache

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack, immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels—removing Constipation.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

THE CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

Beware of Counterfeits.

The genuine have five signatures of Henry C. Spalding on each Box.

Sold by Druggists and other Dealers in Medicines.

A Box will be sent by mail prepaid on receipt of the PRICE, 25 CENTS.

All orders should be addressed to Bellingham's celebrated Stimulating Ointment for the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING OINTMENT is prepared by Dr. C. P. Bellingham, an eminent physician of London, and warranted to bring out a thick set of WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. It applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or towed hair black, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "Ointment" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Ointment" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent by mail, by express, or by mail, (if desired), on receipt of price and postage, $1.00. Apply to, or address,

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

A SUPERLATIVE TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI-DYSPEPTIC

INVIGORATING CORDIAL

WOLFE'S CELEBRATED SCHNAPPS AROMATIC SCHNAPPS should be kept in every family. It invariably corrects the ill effects of change of weather, and as a beverage it is the purest liquor made in the world.

Put up in pint and quart bottles. Also—

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S Pure Cognac Brandy, Imported and bottled by himself, warranted pure, and the best quality, with his certificate on the bottle, and his seal on the cork.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S Pure Port Wine. Imported and bottled by himself, put up for medicinal use, with his certificate on the bottle; warranted pure and the best quality.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S Pure Sherry Wine. Imported and bottled by himself, the same as the Port Wine.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S Pure Madeira Wine. Imported and bottled by himself for private and medicinal use; the best Wine ever offered for sale to the trade in bottles. This Wine is warranted perfectly pure.

UDOLPHO WOLFE'S Pure Jamaica Rum, ST. CROIX RUM, SCOTCH & IRISH WHISKY. All the above imported and bottled by himself, warranted pure and the best quality.

TO THE PUBLIC. I will state my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in New York, that what I pledge and testify to with my seal, my label, and my certificate, is correct, and can be relied upon by every purchaser.

Physicians who use Wines and Liquors in their practice should give the preference to these articles.

For sale by all respectable Druggists and Apothecaries.
